

SPORT AT PUCKAPUNYAL

The football competition has created more enthusiasm than any other branch of sport among troops of the Seventh Division, A.I.F., in training at Puckapunyal. The second round of matches, to be played this afternoon, is:—

2nd/4th Field Regiment v. 2nd 8th Field Regiment; 8th Div. Cavalry Regiment v. 2nd 2nd Medium Regiment; 2nd 14th Battalion v. Royal Australian Engineers; Corps Petrol Park v. 2nd 2nd Pioneer Battalion; 7th Div., Supply Column v. Corps Signals; 7th Div. Signals v. Brigade Headquarters and Field Ambulance.

The camp is open to the public at 2 p.m., and visitors may see the various games in progress. With the Field Ambulance team are Captain A. H. McGregor, formerly of Geelong, Yewers, of St. Kilda, and Wells, of North Melbourne. Lieut. N. Tranter, a former University blue, is captain of the Pioneers team. Among other players are R. C. Smith, formerly of Hawthorn, and many from the Ballarat, Ocolburn Valley, and the other country leagues and metropolitan junior teams.

Pietwood-Smith, the Test cricketer, is attached to the 8th Field Artillery Regiment.

P. J. (Paddy) Eddington, a promising lightweight, who is to appear in a contest at the Stadium at an early date, is with the Pioneer Battalion. He is a member of the aspirant N.C.O.'s Club of B Company of that battalion.
