

IN and OUT of the CITY

PONY ESCORT

Cleve.—The viceregal party visited Cleve on Monday and was met and escorted into the town by 10 small children on ponies. Lady Muriel inspected the ponies and chatted with the small riders, the majority of whom were girls. The party's first visit was to the local hospital, where members were met and welcomed by Dr. A. J. Clarkson, Slater A. Byrne, and board members.

A large crowd, including schoolchildren, school band, and R.S.L. members, assembled round the steps of the institute, from which His Excellency, who was introduced by Mr. Mitchell (chairman of the council), gave an address.

Little Josephine Meaney presented Lady Muriel with a shoulder spray of orchids and lily of the valley.

While Lady Muriel was busy meeting members of the Country Women's Association, the Mothers and Babies' Health Association, and V.S.D.A., His Excellency met members of the R.S.L. in the clubroom.

Both then attended the official luncheon, and afterwards Lady Muriel addressed members of the Red Cross circles and Comforts Fund in the institute. She congratulated them on the fine display of knitting and other finished garments.

She was introduced by Mrs. J. R. Henderson (president of Cleve circles). Reports from their circles were read by Mesdames G. W. Neilson, C. E. Stubing, Ricketta, and Burton, who represented Cleve, Yadnarie, Crossville, and Kilroo.

His Excellency and Lady Muriel left for Cummins in the late afternoon.

A dance to raise funds for the Air Raid Victims Fund was held in the Cleve Institute on Monday night. Door takings amounted to £17/10.

Members of the Cleve Football Club held a victory ball in the institute last week. A small charge was made for supper, the proceeds going to the local Red Cross circle. Arrangements were in the hands of the Red Cross committee.

Mrs. W. Elson and Miss D. Elson returned to Cleve by plane on Monday after several weeks' holiday spent in Adelaide.

Miss M. McInerney also returned by plane after having spent a holiday with her parents in Adelaide.

WORK DISPLAYED

Elbow Hill.—A large parcel of knitting and sewing, completed by the Red Cross workers of Elbow Hill, was sent to Cowell to be exhibited at the display of Red Cross work inspected by Lady Muriel Barclay-Harvey, while at Cowell.

Mrs. S. V. Wake was elected Elbow Hill representative of the Fighting Forces Comforts Fund to meet Lady Muriel in Cowell.

During the past week the Elbow Hill Girls' Social Club has packed Christmas boxes to send to the men of the district who have enlisted.

Mrs. J. Wake was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ramrey during the week.

Mr. L. Beinke, of Kimba, is staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Beinke, of Elbow Hill.

Renmark.—Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Wilson are away for five weeks. Dr. Wilson is in camp with the 43rd Militia Battalion at Woodside.

Matron M. B. Riley, of the Renmark District Hospital, has returned after being away on leave for a month.

Mrs. M. Ballard, of West Croydon, is staying with her son, the Rev. H. R. Ballard, and Mrs. Ballard.

Miss M. Whitfield, of Sydney, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Perrian are away on holiday.

Mrs. P. J. Kerrison has returned from an extended holiday in Sydney and Adelaide.

Mrs. S. Leath and her son, Mr. Lin Leath, of Adelaide, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Graham for a week.

A profit of £36 was made from a garden party conducted by the Renmark Musical Society at Stirling, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steven, in Moorna street.

Proceeds were for the Renmark Red Cross Circle's quota of the 30,000 drive.

Mrs. Lance Lewis (State organiser) has been touring the River districts this week in connection with the Girl Guide thrift campaign.

The visit has been instrumental in greatly stimulating interest in the project. At Renmark Mrs. Lewis addressed two meetings, and a further public meeting is being called for next week by the mayor (Mr. S. A. James) for the purpose of forming a general committee.

FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Kensington Gardens Red Cross.—Kensington Gardens Red Cross Circle is arranging an all-day tennis and an afternoon bowls and bridge party for men and women to take place at the Kensington Gardens bowling green on Thursday, October 31.

This is Kensington Gardens' effort in support of the Burnside Christmas party. A trading table is also arranged, and they will be grateful for contributions from members and friends.

Onlookers will be welcomed on payment of 1/- for tea. For information and reservations ring Mrs. L. O. Betts or Mrs. Horace Wheeler, both of Kensington Gardens.

BRIDGE EVENING

Victor Harbor.—Misses Katie Dillon and Kathleen McNamara, two of the younger-set members of St. Joan of Arc's Church, sponsored the October bridge evening held at Seaforth recently in connection with that church.

Mr. Frank Reed won the stopped-clock competition, Mrs. Hoile won the prize for the highest score, and Mrs. George Bond won the hidden number. There were nine tables of bridge, and £4/7/6 was made.

The Paddy's market for St. Joan's Church will be held on Friday in Seaforth verandah.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holden and their family have returned to Robe terrace, Medindie, after staying at Rensia, Pine avenue.

Miss Ethel Wright, who has been staying at Blackwood, has returned to Cornhill road.

Mrs. Harry Dack, who has been staying with her niece, Mrs. Lukeman, has returned to Alberton.

Lexton.—Miss Mary Johns, of Parkside, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Yates.

Miss Nathalie Neuenkirchen is holidaying

the guest of her sister, Mrs. Yates.

Miss Nathalie Neuenkirchen is holidaying at Penola.

On her return trip from Mildura to Adelaide Mrs. C. A. James, of Broadview, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. Fechner.

V.S.D. TENNIS PARTY

Georgetown.—Arranged by members of the V.S.D. in aid of a special appeal, a most enjoyable tennis party was held on the club courts last Saturday.

Men and women's doubles were played and afternoon tea was served.

Trophy winners were Mrs. H. Danie and Miss Eileen Angley, and Messrs. J. M. Noonan and Ross Pretty.

The sum of £2 1/6 was realised.

A garden party was held at the home of Mrs. E. Buckenara on Wednesday in aid of the local quota for the £30,000 Red Cross country drive.

Mrs. P. C. Boyce, who is a group leader, was responsible for the arrangements.

Various competitions were held, the winners being Mesdames P. M. Thomson and R. J. McDonald, Misses Clare Noonan and Mary Hiskey.

Afternoon tea was served and the proceeds amounted to £2 6.

Mrs. J. A. Lyons, who has been absent from Georgetown for several months because of ill health, motored up last week-end for a short stay. She was accompanied by Dr. Henry Lyons, Mr. Claude Coats, and Misses D. Stirling, B. Risby and J. Rowell.

Pte. W. Hollow, of the A.I.F., paid a visit to Georgetown during the week. He was the guest of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Winton.

After spending a holiday in Georgetown as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Noll, Mrs. Fulford and her small son returned to their home in Orroroo on Tuesday.

Misses M. and M. Jenkins, of Oxford terrace, Unley, motored to Georgetown for a few days last week-end. They stayed with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Sanders and were accompanied by Miss B. Jenkins, of Sydney, and Mrs. A. Petch, of Paruna.

IN AID OF GALA DAY

Clare.—A mannequin parade was held in the Clare Town Hall on Thursday afternoon and evening. This was organised by Mrs. Newton Long and realised £22 in aid of Gala Day.

Mrs. Long also organised a children's fancy dress ball in the town hall.

As a result of this she was able to hand over a further sum of £10 towards Gala Day.

On Thursday four members of the Country Women's Association hospital visiting committee motored to Clare.

On arrival Mrs. Stanley Smith (patron), Mrs. E. Snawhall (secretary), Mrs. MacGillivray (treasurer), and several members of the committee entertained them at lunch.

From there they went on to the C.W.A. meeting and inspected the Christmas gifts given by C.W.A. members for patients in the Adelaide hospitals.

Glossop.—Mrs. J. R. Gray presided at the Glossop Red Cross and comforts circle meeting held last week. A large parcel for the Red Cross was packed by Mrs. E. W. Taylor and Mrs. L. J. Mander. Included in it were garments knitted by schoolchildren, and some knitted garments for child refugees.

£10 has been forwarded to headquarters as the first instalment of Glossop's quota of £50. A donation of £1 1/1 towards this amount was received from Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Wilkinson. Proceeds of £3 13/ from a recent bridge party were sent to the Comforts Fund for the provision of 10 Christmas hampers for soldiers.

For a fund for the provision of Christmas hampers for soldiers.

To raise the second instalment of the £50 quota a bridge and tennis afternoon will be held at the home of Mrs. E. R. Scott on Thursday.

The gift stall at the meeting yielded £2 1/8 for the Red Cross and Comforts Fund.

Balaklava.—As Mrs. McNeill (secretary) was absent from Tuesday's hospital women's auxiliary meetings, Mrs. U. P. Laub was elected president.

Mrs. W. Mussared, Mrs. A. W. Kimber's mother, who celebrated her ninety-first birthday in September, has made and presented six pillowslips to the auxiliary for hospital use.

Quilts to value of £10 are to be chosen by Mesdames W. H. Underwood, A. J. McNeill, R. S. Tiller, and Matron Meaney.

Towards the end of the month an American afternoon for hospital funds is to be held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Joske.

The younger son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Williams, of Watchman, Cpl. M. R. Williams, was tendered a birthday tea last Saturday night to celebrate his coming-of-age. His uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. McCallum, of Balaklava, were host and hostess.

RED CROSS DANCE

Berri.—Between 150 and 200 people attended the monthly Red Cross shilling dance in the Rivoli Theatre, which resulted in £9 being raised for the fund.

Everyone wore gay posies and buttonholes, which were sold at 3d. each.

The proceeds from a child's frock, knitted and donated by Miss Nita Martin, were £2 1/1. The winner was Mrs. W. A. Pidler. Mrs. P. E. Hepworth held the lucky posy.

Mrs. B. G. Stacey presided at the St. Alban's Guild meeting. It was decided to hold a Paddy's market and social afternoon in the church hall on Thursday, October 31. A musical programme will be arranged by Mrs. H. Laycock, and competitions by Mrs. F. E. Hepworth.

Towards this fixture a donation of £3 3/3 was received from Mrs. A. Benson, and one of £1 1/1 from Mrs. A. E. Wiltshire and her brother, Mr. Young.

The secretary (Mrs. M. E. Cawse) informed the meeting that the first bridge series had realised £28 6/6, and that half of the proceeds of £19 11/3 from the annual ball had been donated to the local Red Cross circle.

The St. John Nursing Sisters held their monthly meeting in the Rivoli Theatre on Monday. The acting divisional leader (Mrs. J. R. Gray) presided.

GARDEN PARTY

Snowtown.—The president of the Snowtown Red Cross Circle (Mrs. S. G. Carter) and secretary (Miss S. Uppill) have arranged a garden party on the Snowtown Hospital lawns for Tuesday.

Members of the Snowtown C.W.A. recently held a bridge afternoon in the rest room. Prizes were won by Mesdames H. W. Hall and I. G. Lowe.

At a recent Red Cross meeting held in the institute, the chairman of the district council (Mr. E. B. Gehan) presided. It was decided to make a canvass for direct giving throughout the district to raise £120, which is Snowtown's quota in the Red Cross country drive.

The marriage of Vera, second daughter of Mr. P. Criddle, of Kingston, South-East, and Robert, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Turner, Piffeld, Snowtown, was cele-and Robert, second son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Turner, Piffeld, Snowtown, was celebrated at Unley Methodist Church recently.

The bride, who was given away by Mr. E. R. Tuck, of Millswood, wore a gown of magnolia lace over satin, cut on slim lines. Her veil was caught with white roses, and she carried a sheaf of white lilies and roses.

Mrs. Taylor (the bride's sister) was matron of honor, and Miss Beth Turner (the bridegroom's sister) was bridesmaid.

They were frocked alike in pale blue velvet, and they carried posies of pink flowers.

Mr. Randall Turner was best man, and Mr. Brian Turner groomsmen.

FASHION PARADE

Tatiara.—A ball held by Bordertown St. Barnabas' Church of England this week in place of the annual strawberry fete raised about £16. A waltzing competition was won by Mr. J. O'Donoghue and Mrs. R. Campbell.

The guild secured over £15 from its annual ball in June, so the latest result was most satisfactory.

From a drive in one portion of the district, the men's committee of Bordertown Red Cross circle has secured over £60 towards the circle's quota in the Thirty Thousand Drive.

Sponsored by the local branch of the Eudunda Farmers' Co-operative Society, a comprehensive and colorful fashion parade in the institute netted over £30 for Red Cross funds. Twenty-four mannequins, ranging from matrons to small girls, took part. Two wedding displays—one military—created special interest.

A notable part of the parade was the wide range of uniforms worn by women in the various national services.

Bordertown unit of the Comforts Fund now has £340/12/ to its credit.

Members of the unit and the Red Cross are co-operating in providing the luncheon and afternoon tea at the sixty-fifth show of Tatiara Agricultural Society on October 30 and 31. Menfolk will be responsible for the soft drinks and sweets.

Funds are expected to receive a big filip from this enterprise.

Blyth.—A farewell social was tendered Pte. Roy Johnstone by the citizens of Blyth this week. The evening took the form of dancing, competitions, spelling bee, and general knowledge test.

A bridge evening was held in aid of the farewell committee recently. Prizes were won by Mrs. J. P. Morgan and Mr. O. P. Oats.

FOR RED CROSS

Hoyleton—Woodlands.—Woodlands' Whippers, a company of seven young people of these districts, will present a novelty concert at the Hoyleton Institute on November 5 to aid the local Red Cross drive. The programme will feature A. A. Milne's play "The Romantic Age."

A company of Penwortham players gave a novelty concert at the Hoyleton Institute in aid of local Red Cross funds. Door takings were more than £7.

At Halbury Hall recently Pte. William Davey was tendered a farewell soiree.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Cooper, of Woodlands, visited Mannum this week.

Mrs. E. Redpath, of Hill View, Woodlands, was in Adelaide last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Robinson and their family were recent visitors to Jamestown.

Koolunga.—At this month's meeting of the Fighting Forces Comforts Fund, the president, Mrs. W. Wallace, presided. Mrs. L. Chalmers was in charge of a jumble stall, while Mesdames A. Buchanan, H. Jones, E. Le Paige, E. Walladge, and Misses Freda Cooper and Margaret Sheldow were afternoon tea hostesses.

It was decided to forward £4/10/ for 12 Christmas hampers.

A dance under the auspices of the insti-

Christmas hampers.

A dance under the auspices of the institute committee was held in the hall last Saturday evening. Bridge and crib were played in the supper room.

Mrs. M. J. A. Brown has returned from a visit to the city.

Misses Joyce Goldsworthy and Hazel Mitchell are staying at Whyalla.

MARRIED LAST WEEK

Recent Wedding.—A pretty wedding was solemnised in the Knightsbridge Baptist Church last Saturday by the Rev. S. Holly, when Dulcie, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Parsons, of Rochester street, Knightsbridge, was married to Pte. Cecil O'Leary (Second 2nd Pioneer Battalion, Puckapunyal, Victoria), youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Leary, of Naracoorte.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Pte. Vern Parsons, chose a gown of white stiffened lace fashioned with a full skirt merging into a long train.

A topknot of white camellias surmounted her long double-tiered veil of misty white tulle, and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Blue moire was worn by the bridesmaid, Miss Eileen Crabbe. Her skirt was full and was finished at the waist with contrasting velvet ribbon. The headdress was a shoulder length blue tulle veil arranged with a spray of flowers, and she carried a bouquet of roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Pte. Hilton Parsons (bride's brother).

Strathalbyn.—Miss Clare Bollinger has returned from a month's holiday in her home town, Clare.

A bridge evening was held recently to aid Church of England funds. The hostesses were Mesdames D. Baker and M. Bridson. Prizes for highest scores were won by Mrs. M. O. Gooden and Mr. P. Verco, hidden numbers by Miss E. Castle and Mr. L. Maher, and consolations by Miss G. Boorman and Mr. A. Sanderecock.

A concert was held in the town hall in aid of Red Cross funds. It was given by Reva Farham and her players, assisted by the Rev. Gooden, Mrs. Chennell, and Mr. J. Blackwell.

Peterborough.—Mrs. M. J. Harris, of Adelaide, is spending a holiday with her son, Mr. A. Harris, Victoria street.

The Rev. and Mrs. E. C. Walsh returned on Tuesday after spending a few days in Broken Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Fenton left last week-end for Islington.

Mrs. W. J. Brady, of Broken Hill, returned home on Tuesday after a few days in Peterborough.

Gladstone.—The Gladstone Croquet Club opened its season on Wednesday. The opening ceremony was performed by Mrs. N. L. Wellington, of Georgetown, who was presented with a posy by little Lois Lines.

Competitions were won by Mesdames P. Shephard (Laura) and A. M. Whimpress (Wasleys).

Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hill, of Gumeracha, are spending a holiday at Gladstone with Mr. and Mrs. L. Harris.

The annual fete in connection with St. Alban's Anglican Church was held in the parish hall and was patronised by a large crowd. A dance was held in the evening.

Brinkworth.—Miss L. Riebe, of Walkerie, spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Moore, of the Bank of Adelaide, on holiday.

Miss Joy Schuppan, of Terowie, is spending a holiday here with relatives.

The usual fortnightly dance was held in the institute last Saturday. Visitors were present from Snowtown, York, and

The usual fortnightly dance was held in the Institute last Saturday. Visitors were present from Newtown, Yacka, and Clare. Proceeds amounted to £4/18/.

BRIDE AND BRIDESMAID:—Miss Mary Isaachsen (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Isaachsen, of George street, Hawthorne, with Miss Phyllis Crompton, who will be her only bridesmaid when she is married on November 2, to Dr. David Crompton, son of Mrs. Owen Crompton, of Park terrace, Parkside. The ceremony will be celebrated at St. Columba's church, Hawthorn, and afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Isaachsen will hold a reception at their home.

Mayfair Portrait.

MISS IRIS SHEARER, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shearer, of Goodwood road, Cottonville, whose engagement is announced to Mr. Owen Whitford, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Whitford, of Mackinnon parade, North Adelaide.

Blodwen Thomas Portrait