

Personal Pars.

Mrs. E. A. Hough, of 2 Clyde street, Frankston, has received a card from her husband, Sgt. E. A. Hough, who is a prisoner of war at Moulmein, in Burma.

* * *

Charlie Brooks, of Beach Street, is home on leave from New Guinea.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Murray McFarlane are holidaying at "Green Gables," Warburton.

* * *

While Mr. W. Hope Gibson was wholeheartedly carrying out his part in making the "Rookery Nook" performance at Somerville last Thursday night a roaring success, he was unaware of the fact that his home at Frankston was a mass of flames. Mrs. Gibson had gone to Somerville to see the "Rookery Nook" performance, and no one knows how the fire started at the Gibson residence. For the time being, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson are "making do" with a caravan.

* * *

Private Bill Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown, of Davey Street, is home on leave from New Guinea. Accompanied by his mother, he went up to the Goulburn Valley for a few days to see his sister, Mrs. Don Boccobella, at Shepparton, but it now back in Frankston.