

Borneo: Building of prisoner-of-war cages is a task that members of the 7th Division have been waiting for for 3½ years. Members of the 2nd 2nd Pioneers Battalion who were engaged in building the enclosure had lost many men captured by the Japanese in Java in 1942. They, therefore, undertook their task with enthusiasm. (Australian Official Photo.)