

24,300—SO PROUDLY THEY MARCHED

HEROES' DAY . . .

TO the old tunes, 24,300 veterans of two wars — 7,300 more than last year — marched through Melbourne to the Shrine yesterday.

● Sir Dallas Brooks, Governor, takes the salute in St. Kilda road.

● Marching along with "Skeets" Wilson is his daughter, Cheryl, who brought out her kilts for the occasion. "Skeets" is carrying the banner of the 2/2 Pioneers.

● Here is where the Anzac tradition started—among the diggers of World War I. They can still step it out with the youngsters.

● Medals gleamed in the sun as these police ex-servicemen swung past Sir Dallas Brooks in St. Kilda rd.

● Australian Army nurses in three wars show they've not lost their touch at marching.

● Young, old, smiling and serious faces in this group crossing Bourke st.
