

NO TRACE YET OF DROWNING VICTIM

BALLINA, Wednesday. — Ballina Police stated today that, although a close patrol of the beach had been maintained, no trace has been found of the body of Henry Alfred Garrard, who was swept overboard early on Monday morning from the trawler "Geoffrey D" when crossing the Richmond River bar.

It was stated the beach patrol would be maintained for some time.